

A black and white photograph of a rectangular, textured object, possibly a piece of wood or stone, with a small, dark, circular mark near the top center. The object is oriented vertically and appears to be a close-up of a surface. The texture is grainy and uneven. The dark mark is located in the upper-middle portion of the frame. The overall image is somewhat blurry and has a high-contrast, grainy quality.

1. Spasoje Sterzevich, former chief of the Yugoslav Ministry of the Interior in the Cairo Government-in-Exile and later chief of King Peter's bodyguard, recently arrived in Rome from London. His mission is to observe the political trends among the Yugoslav exiles in Italy for King Peter.
2. He immediately contacted Miha Krek, Ivan Pernar, and Adam Pribicevich, respectively leaders of the Slovene, Croat and Serb exile groups.
3. It is reported that Sterzevich has made the following declaration to his compatriots in Rome:
  - a) Dr. Vladko Macek has reached an agreement with Constantin Fotich in the United States regarding the future frontiers of a federated Croat and Serb state.
  - b) As a result of this agreement, Macek and his Croatian Peasant Party(HSS) will enter the London Yugoslav Committee in the near future.
  - c) Great Britain will soon break relations with Yugoslavia and the London Yugoslav Committee will elect a new Government-in-exile.
